Dear Mr. Branagan:

When I handed you the application, naturalization paper and fee of one dollar, all pinned together, at your desk on Monday morning, for a passport for Mr. Rothschild, you called Mr. Trouland and handed him the papers and fee; you did not say, nor did Mr. Trouland understand that I had given you the papers. It is probable therefore that inasmuch as I have not received the passport and citizen's papers, they have been sent direct to applicant. You did not have his address, however, only the address of his witness. I write this in order that the matter may be straightened if perchance it has gone astray.

Very sincerely yours,
